Christian Brethren Secretariat Malaysia presents

Assembly Leaders Conference (ALC) 2015

The Assembly Leaders Conference (ALC) is held once in two years at various locations. The last ALC was held at the Genting View Resort located at the foothills of Genting Highlands. This year, the ALC will be held at the Grand Kampar Hotel (GKH) in Kampar, Perak.

The theme for ALC 2015 is "The Trial of Faith" based on 1 Peter 1:7, and the keynote speaker is Mr Loh Ah Asiau.

ALC 2015 will adopt the 3-tracks breakout session (BOS) format used during ALC 2013, i.e. the men's track, the women's track and the youth's track. Those who are involved in the youth are encouraged to participate in the youth track. Following feedback from the last ALC, this time round, the elders will not hold their session concurrently with the BOS. This will enable them to participate in the men's and youth's BOS and, if required, to sit in at the women's BOS. There is a possibility of an afternoon free for organised excursions.

About the Keynote Speaker

LOH AH ASIAU who was in the engineering profession for many years, opted for early retirement when he was 44, and have been in full time service for the last 30 years. Fee Chin, his wife was an English teacher. Both of them have been serving together in Church planting here in Malaysia and in several cross cultural situations. They are the founder leaders of the Gospel Outreach Worldwide (GOWW). They are currently developing new mission fields from their base at Kajang Life Chapel.

About the Grand Kampar Hotel

Grand Kampar Hotel (GPS Coordinates: North: 4° 19' 39.1", East: 101° 8' 44.5") is a 3-star deluxe hotel in Kampar and lies within Kinta Valley. The hotel received the "Best City Hotel" award from Tourism Perak in 2013. Kampar founded in 1887 was a centre of the tin mining industry. The name Kampar was derived from the Cantonese words "kam pou", meaning 'precious gold' and refers to the town's previously large tin reserves.
