REFLECTION: A chance for students to step away from city life, pause and reflect on what God wants of them, and how to prepare for the next stage of their lives.

OUR MISSION

For over 22 years, GLO Malaysia has trained hundreds of Christians on how to apply the living Word to their lives while also teaching relevant skills that can be utilised back in their respective home Assemblies as servants of the Lord. Throughout all these years, the mission of GLO has not changed and that is this: to equip Christians with the Word and to produce workers for the harvest field.

Come discover how you can be equipped with the Sword of the Spirit and at the same time apply your knowledge in the ministry field in Bidor Gospel Centre, Bidor, Perak at the GLO Level 1 programme for 2020.

TOPICS COVERED

- Personal encounter with God;
- Old and New Testament studies, including the Life of Christ;
- The Church – its mission and its practices;
- Issues confronting Youths – how to discern God's will, making decisions, standing up for what you believe, preparing for university life, contemporary topics: artificial intelligence, technology impact on the world, Internet of things etc;
- Creationism vs Evolution;
- Assembly Distinctives and the Lord's Supper;
- How to study the Bible, basic Bible interpretation and how to apply truths to the Christian life; and
- Controversial issues confronting Christians including the Trinity, the dual nature of Christ, Calvinism, and Charismatic issues.
